1. Qualitative Information Regarding Third Quarter Financial Results

(1) Description Regarding Operating Results

The Japanese economy during the nine months ended December 31, 2024 continued to recover gradually thanks to improvements in the employment and income environment. However, looking ahead, there are risks of a downturn in overseas economies, including the continued high interest rate levels in Europe and the United States, and the impact of the prolonged stagnation of the real estate market in China. We are also paying careful attention to the effects of rising prices, future policy trends in the United States, the situation in the Middle East, and fluctuations in financial and capital markets, etc.

In the construction industry, construction investment is on an increasing trend in both public and private sectors. However, the factors continuing to require close attention include the effects of soaring construction material prices and rising labor costs attributable to manpower shortages.

Under such business climate, our corporate group's consolidated performance for the nine months ended December 31, 2024 was as follows:

Construction business's orders received reached 315,295 million yen, an increase by 71,338 million yen (up 29.2% year on year), owing to an increase in both domestic civil engineering and overseas construction, despite a decrease in domestic building projects.

Net sales decreased by 30,113 million yen (down 10.2% year on year) to 264,730 million yen, caused by a decrease in domestic building projects and real estate business, etc. Operating profit decreased by 598 million yen (down 4.0 % year on year) to 14,279 million yen, owing to decreases in gross profit on completed construction contracts of domestic civil engineering projects and in gross profit on real estate business and other, despite an increase mainly led by gross profit on completed domestic building projects. Ordinary profit decreased by 1,673 million yen (down 10.7% year on year) to 13,965 million yen. Profit attributable to owners of parent increased by 667 million yen (up 6.5% year on year) to 10,960 million yen.

The results of the reportable segments are as follows (segment results include internal net sales or transfers between segments).

① Civil Engineering Business

This reporting segment is mainly composed of sales from domestic civil engineering projects. Net sales in this segment increased 2.0% year on year to 78,247 million yen, thanks to the smooth progress overall of construction projects. The segment's profit decreased 19.0% year on year to 6,293 million yen, affected by a decrease in gross profit on completed construction contracts, which partly stemmed from the reactionary decline of design change contracts for large-scale works we were able to secure during the previous fiscal year's same period.

On the Company's non-consolidated basis, orders received from domestic civil engineering projects increased by 68,387 million yen (up 108.0% year on year) to 131,735 million yen, attributable to securing large-scale public-sector construction projects and closing of discretionary contracts.

② Building Business

This reporting segment is mainly composed of sales of domestic building projects. Net sales in this segment decreased 17.3% year on year to 142,974 million yen, partly affected by the reactionary decline of some large-scale building projects being completed in the previous fiscal year. However, as the gross margin on completed construction contracts improved, which was helped by the percentage decrease of construction projects affected by rising prices, segment profit increased 387.0% year on year to 3,880 million yen.

On the Company's non-consolidated basis, orders received for domestic building projects decreased by 22,928 million yen (down 13.3% year on year) to 149,520 million yen due to a decrease in both private-sector and public-sector building projects.

③ International Business

This reporting segment is mainly composed of sales from overseas civil engineering and overseas building projects. Net sales in this segment increased by 24.2% year on year to 29,369 million yen, with the segment loss of 376 million yen (compared to a segment loss of 508 million yen of the previous year's same period).

On the Company's non-consolidated basis, orders received for overseas civil engineering and building projects increased 13,117 million yen (up 239.1% year on year) to 18,603 million yen, due in part to securing a large-scale civil engineering contract in Singapore.

4 Asset Value-Added Business

This reporting segment is mainly composed of sales and leasing income from real estate properties owned. Net sales in this segment decreased 19.4% year on year to 18,585 million yen, mostly resulting from a decrease in the segment's sales business, which led to a segment profit decrease by 32.1% year on year to 5,093 million yen due to a decrease in sales business profit.

(5) Regional Environmental Solution Business

This reporting segment is mainly composed of sales from the renewable energy business and the community development projects. Net sales in this segment increased 104.9% year on year to 372 million yen, with the segment loss of 465 million yen (compared to a segment loss of 629 million yen of the previous year's same period).

(2) Description Regarding the Company's Financial Position

Total assets at the end of the third quarter of the fiscal year under review increased by 1,950 million yen (up 0.3%) to 581,575 million yen, compared to the end of the previous consolidated fiscal year, primarily owing to increases in investment securities and property, plant and equipment, despite decreases in cash and deposits and advances paid.

Total liabilities increased by 3,151 million yen (up 0.8%) compared to the end of the previous consolidated fiscal year to 405,919 million yen, owing to increases in commercial papers and long-term borrowings, despite decreases in notes payable, accounts payable for construction contracts and other, short-term borrowings, deposits received and other factors.

Net assets decreased by 1,201 million yen (down 0.7%) compared to the end of the previous consolidated fiscal year to 175,655 million yen, due to a decrease in valuation difference on available-for-sale securities and other factors. As a result, the owner's equity ratio was 28.7%, a decrease of 0.4 percentage points from the end of the previous consolidated fiscal year.
